BOARDING HOUSES ACT 2012

Consultation about the Draft Boarding Houses Regulation 2013

IN 2012 the NSW Government passed the Boarding Houses Act 2012. This Act establishes a regulatory framework for all boarding houses in NSW, both “general” boarding houses that provide beds to five or more residents, and “assisted” boarding houses that provide accommodation to two or more residents with additional needs (people who need care and support services as a result of old age, disability or mental illness).

A draft regulation under the Act, the Boarding Houses Regulation 2013, has now been prepared for public consultation. The Draft Regulation provides details about service and accommodation standards for assisted boarding houses, as well as further information required for the Register of Boarding Houses, and information about penalties.

The Draft Regulation, a Regulatory Impact Statement and further information about the consultation process are available at www.adhc.nsw.gov.au/boardinghouse or by calling (02) 9248 0835.

Ageing Disability and Home Care and NSW Fair Trading invite interested individuals and organisations to make written submissions on the Draft Regulation. Submissions should be sent to boardinghousereform@fac.nsw.gov.au or Boarding House Reform, Law & Justice Directorate, Ageing Disability and Home Care, Department of Family and Community Services, Level 4, 83 Clarence Street, Sydney 2000.

Comments are also being sought on a standard occupancy agreement for general boarding houses to be approved by the Commissioner for Fair Trading under section 29 of the Boarding House Act 2012. For more information, please see www.fairtrading.nsw.gov.au/About_us/Have_your_say.html.

The closing date for all comments and submissions is 5pm Monday, 15 April 2013.

Submissions may be made publicly available or referred to in a public report unless you advise that you wish all or part of your submission to be treated as confidential.

CHARITABLE TRUSTS ACT 1993

Order Under Section 12

Administrative Scheme Relating to UTS Law Alumni Foundation

THE trustees of the UTS Law Alumni Foundation Fund ('the Trust'), which was established to benefit law students at University of Technology, Sydney ('UTS'), asked the Attorney General to establish a scheme, under the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 ('CTA'), to allow them to transfer the administration of the trust, including a number of scholarships awarded by it, to the UTS Foundation ('the Foundation').

The Foundation is an internal unit of the UTS, governed by the UTS Council, which fund raises for UTS generally. It is intended that UTS, which is a statutory corporation established under the University of Technology Sydney Act 1993 ('the UTS Act'), will replace the current trustee (Board of Trustees) and that the Council of the University, which is the organ of governance of UTS under the UTS Act, will exercise the powers and responsibilities of UTS as trustee. As at 31 December 2011, the total value of all the funds managed by the Trust was $255,041.20.

The reason for the transfer is said to be that it will provide the Trust with the benefit of the Foundation's resources, fund raising expertise and economies of scale, including removing the separate deductible gift recipient reporting and audit obligations. It will also align the Trust with the Foundation, rather than continuing to operate potentially in conflict with it, as it currently does.

It appears to be expedient to transfer its administration to the Foundation, provided that separate ledgers are maintained for the general trust and the scholarship trusts which are administered by the Trust. This would permit the Foundation to combine the management and administration of the Trust with that of the Foundation, to use common premises, employ common staff in the administration of the trusts and to pool the trust property for the purpose of investment.

I have formed a view that the UTS Law Alumni Foundation Fund is a trust for charitable purposes, being for the advancement of education. I consider that the original trust can no longer operate effectively and that this is an appropriate matter in which the Attorney General should approve an administrative scheme under section 12 (1) (b) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 so as to vary the mode of administration of the original trust.

Pursuant to that section, I hereby order:

1. the appointment of the University of Technology, Sydney as the trustee of the Trust, vesting in the University all the assets of the Trust;
2. the University of Technology, Sydney to use premises and staff of the University in administering, and raising funds for, the Trust; and
3. the University of Technology, Sydney to:
 - (a) use common premises;
 - (b) employ common staff;
 - (c) pool Trust property for the purpose of investment;
 - (d) combine administrative functions
 with the University of Technology, Sydney Foundation, provided that the Trust funds are separately.

This Order will take effect 21 days after its publication in the NSW Government Gazette, in accordance with section 16 (2) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993.

Date of Order: 5 March 2013.

N. ADAMS, S.C.,
Deputy Solicitor General
(under delegation from the Attorney General)
